

LITERATI:The Literary Club

Rendezvous of imagination with creativity

LITERATI-The Literary club of SRMGPC organizes events that will not only compel you to swim through all those black distorted figures lingering on white backgrounds but will certainly dig your gyres deeper and at the same frame it will amuse you to the fullest. The motto of our Literati club is to strive you towards the path where you can “Learn and Grow”.

The variety of competitions and the number of competitions that this club offers is a trademark. We at literati offer more than 16 competitions for students in SRMCEM as well as students from other colleges. This even includes a dumbcharades and many other events for teachers. The diversity is great and unique! We offer competitions ranging from debates to quizzes, from group discussions to spelling competitions! All competitions are full of prizes and in few there are huge prize money. Now that is something that we take complete pride in.

The work that we do in this cell is clinical as well as amusing. Each and every student participates with zeal and fervor dedicating every iota of their energy in working for this club. Students share their knowledge and skills and there is a constant vibe of enthusiasm in our club.

So be ready for some of the most challenging yet entertaining events, where we might see a new Premchand or a Shakespeare born!!!
